Notices of Motion

Moved by Councillor Jones, seconded by Councillor Hatfield,

M384-2012

Whereas September 1, 2012 will mark a historic milestone for the Windsor Police Service and the Windsor Police Association by observing the 70th anniversary of the hiring of Alton C. Parker; and

Whereas Alton C. Parker was the first black officer hired by the Windsor Police Service and in July 1951 Parker became the first African Canadian to achieve the rank of Detective in Canada; and

Whereas Detective Parker is perhaps best known and most loved for his dedication to serving the community out of uniform for efforts such as being a founding member of ALPHA (Apartment Living for Physically Handicapped Adults) and serving on the board of directors of Goodwill Industries; and

Whereas in 1966 Detective Parker and his wife Evelyn began hosting the annual Uncle Al's Kids Party which brought joy to so many children and families in our community;

Therefore be it resolved that the City of Windsor DESIGNATE the 400 block of Brodhead between Mercer Street and Howard Avenue with the Honourary Naming of such as Alton C. Parker Way.
