Painting with Leaves

Holding a paintbrush and painting is a great way for children to develop fine motor skills, which helps lay the foundation for future writing. Try painting with leaves this fall! Go for a walk outdoors to admire the colourful trees and collect a variety of leaves. You can paint the leaves, trace them, make leaf prints on your paper, and much more! While you and your child are creating your fall masterpiece, talk about the shapes, sizes, colours, and textures of the leaves.
