Physical Literacy: Alphabet Exercise Part 6

Literacy Corner

Dinosaur Egg Hunt

Do you have leftover plastic eggs? Use them as dinosaur eggs! Place numbers, letters, words, exercise challenges, and other items inside each egg and hide them for your child to find. This can create fun opportunities to practice basic math, letter recognition, reading, new vocabulary, and encourage physical literacy.

EarlyON Science: Dinosaur Eggs

Time for your little paleontologist to create their own dinosaur eggs!
