Literacy Corner

Playing at the Park

Join in and play with your children at the park. Try telling a story while you swing on the swing set, spelling your names with sticks, running a race, counting your steps as you climb or even counting the monkey bars as you help children move from one to the other. Build language by talking about all of the things you are doing together at the park. Children can learn a lot while they are having fun!

Activities Online and At Home
